

Loaves and Fishes at Holy Rosary Church feeds hungry people in their neighborhood.
Loaves and Fishes at Holy Rosary shared over 250 meals last night
using over 20 volunteers.

Loaves and Fishes
happens throughout the cities
every day of the year at five locations (that I know about).

Loaves and Fishes
takes Jesus at his word (Matthew 14:16)
when he says to the disciples:
“You feed them”
A directive spoken as they faced 5,000 hungry people.
At that time all they could come up with was five loaves and two fish.
Somehow Jesus and those gather folk made it work.

Not unlike Loaves and Fishes here in the cities where many more than 5,000 are fed without question as to need to status.
If you show up, you will be fed.

Of course, Loaves and Fishes uses churches and faithful people
to get these meals made,
to get these people fed,
People and churches who hear the invitation:
“You feed them.”
echoing through the centuries
even into today.

It happens because we are working together!
It happens out of the communities of faith.
On our own, none of us could do what Loaves and Fishes does

It is God’s desire and design that we are in this together!
All of a sudden feeding 5,000 is not an overwhelming number.

Find those with whom God would have you love and serve:
Sundays with Grace University Lutheran Church at 8:30 or 10:30 AM and/or 6:30 PM.
University Lutheran Church of Hope at 8:30 and 10:30 AM

Trinity Lutheran Church (at Augustana's Chapel) at 8:45 or 11 AM.

Peace, friends

Fritz Wehrenberg, campus pastor fritz@unmlutheran.org